

Letters to Peter and Chloe and everyone else!

Year threes from Burleigh State School say thank-you

These letters were sent to the Mudgeeraba Light Horse Museum as a thank-you from the students for their visit, March 12, 2015 – just prior to the Anzac Gallipoli centenary.

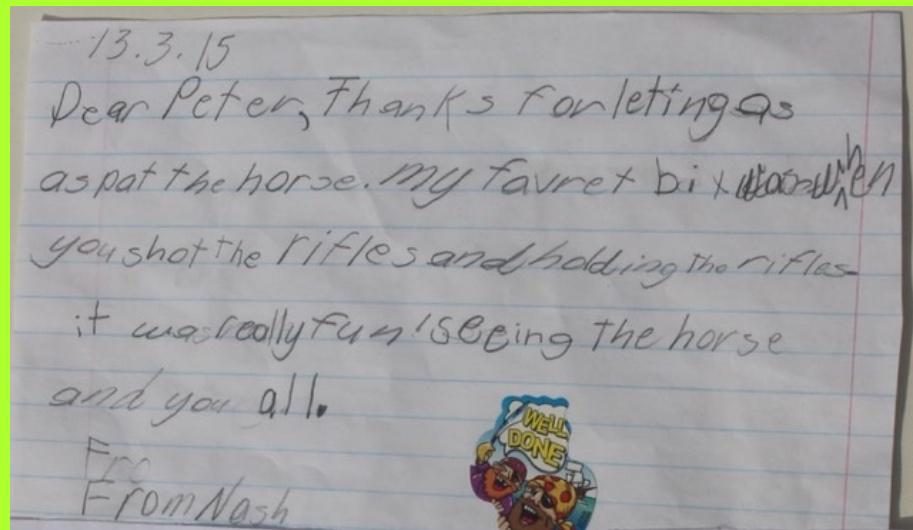

It's always lovely to receive letters from children, and these were worthy of a book.

It's a great example of what a class can do for 'Telling the Anzac story'.

Thanks for letting us pat the horse. My favourite bit was when you shot the rifles and holding the rifles. It was really fun seeing the horse and you all.

From Nash

Beautifully detailed drawing - the farmhouse, Chloe in the stable and of the barn. Great you got the safety message! Looks like Peter in the green hat - our horseback tent-pegger. Great airplane in the sky too.

Paige

12.
Dar Peres, Brian, Brian, Bob an everyone else especially Chloe, thank you for our wonderful visit at the Light Horse Museum. My favourite part was finding Woody, and holding the bayonet and raising the flag.

Lovely drawing of Chloe. The pink, yellow and black spots remind us of Chloe's dappled
grey coat.
Very Good!

P.S. I liked putting the poppies on our hero - CHLOE

Chloe the horse

The final part of the day, students listen to stories of Anzac heroes – men and women bravely supporting the war effort. They then place their poppy on the photo of their chosen hero.

This group of students spontaneously decorated Chloe with poppies.

Chloe looks great, doesn't she!

Dear Peter, Brian, Brian, Bob and everyone else especially Chloe,

Thank you very, very, very much for our wonderful visit to the Light Horse Museum yesterday.

My favourite part was where we got to hold a rifle and finding Woody was the best part and Chloe is awesome!!!!

Dear Peter, Brian, Brian, Bob and everyone else, especially Chloe,
Thank you so much for our wonderful visit to the Lighthouse Museum yesterday.
My favourite part was when Peter and Chloe were picking up the tent pegs.
Thank you again for letting us help us and learning about the soldiers and letting us hold the gun and knife.

Indy, you've really captured Choe's silvery coat. Great saddle and stirrup. Excellent!
Wait a minute - what's that on her nose? A striped sock?

Jazlyn

I had a wonderful time and I loved when we tried to find Woody. It was so much fun. I wish I could go there again. And, it was the best time I have ever had, and I liked patting Chloe.

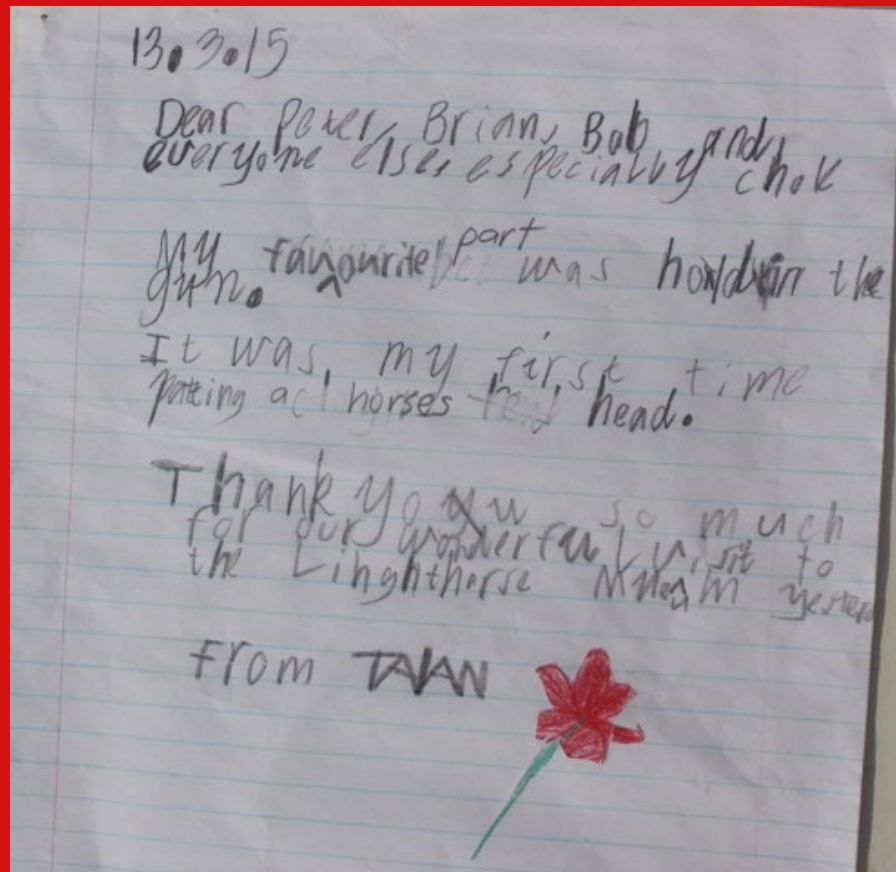

From Jazlyn

Jazlyn, we loved your letter – so from the heart. Well done! So glad you want to come here again and have the best time ever. Thank- you.

Taian

My favourite part was holding the gun.
It was my first time patting a horse's head. Thank-you so much for our wonderful visit to the Light Horse Museum yesterday.

From Taian

Patting a horse's head is a very special experience. Love your poppy drawing. Here is a photo of a real poppy growing in the WWI battlefields in France.

Mackenzie

Thank you so much for the wonderful day at the Light Horse museum yesterday. My favourite parts were singing, finding Woody and watching Peter ride Chloe. Also I learnt lots about Australian flags.
from Mackenzie

Glad you liked the singing. Peter and Chloe are a great team. The tent pegging is so exciting to watch. Love your field of poppies.
Hearts are a nice touch.

Chloe looks gorgeous in your drawing. Great eyelashes! Brian is very pleased you learnt a lot about the flags!

Tyler

My favourite part was when Peter held the sword in his mouth and I also liked giving a poppy to our hero Chloe.

Love Tyler ★★★★★

It's so good when Peter holds the sword in his mouth - and uses the lance at the same time! Good to see you've fattened Chloe up nicely in your drawing.

Beau

My favourite part was holding the bayonet, holding the rifle and watching tent pegging with Chloe. She was really good. I liked finding Woody.

Finding Woody was really fun because you had to look everywhere.

Patting Chloe was awesome. She was so soft on her nose.

Thanks again from Beau.

Awesome letter, Beau.
Horses noses are delightfully soft to touch.
Here's a picture of Peter on Choe. Peter's holding a lance.

Dear Peter, Brian, Brian, Bob and everyone else especially
Chloe,

Thank you so much for our wonderful visit to the lighthouse
Museum yesterday.

My favourite part was when we got to pat Chloe and find Woody.

I also learnt that horses like lollies and like lolly snacks.

Thanks again for a great day from Summer.

Excellent drawing of Chloe and her fine spots. Horses do have a bit of a sweet tooth!

Dear peter, Brian, Bob and everyone else, especially chloe.
Thank you so much for our wonderful visit to the lighthouse museum yesterday.
My favorite part was the 'Where's Woody' thing and learning how to hold the weapons. Also chloe is a smart horse and so is Peter and all of you. So I hope I can go again.

Terrific drawing of Chloe - you really got her gear right - bridle, reins, saddle and stirrup. Terrific job.
You know Ella, we love it here too!
